NYSEG Training Substation: Minor Site Plan Review

1195 Reynold Road

Project Description:

Ileta LaBarre, on behalf of NYSEG, submitted an application to construct a new model substation control house for NYSEG personnel training at 1195 Reynolds Road. The property is zoned Suburban Multi-Family and the public utility and educational uses are permitted. The project includes a $12 \times 32$ foundation and control house. A wood pole structure next to the control house will support the conductors for the substation. The control house will contain the electronic equipment that controls the other equipment within the substation foot print which is 98 X 62.

Status:
The Planning Department approved the minor site plan for 1195 Reynolds Road with stipulations on November 30, 2018.
